Tulsa University Football Team Begin Training At Bay

Headed by Coach Frnka, Tulsa University Football Team Arrived at Bay St. Louis Saturday Evening—Training Under Way—Team and Coaches Well Pleased With Training Quarters

Another year has gone by and again we have as our guests one of the Sugar Bowl contestants. On Saturday evening Tulsa University football team arrived in Bay St. Louis for their training period for the Sugar Bowl contest to be held in New Orleans on January 1st, with their headquarters at the Reed Hotel.

Bay St. Louis has entertained one of the Sugar Bowl contestants each year with the exception of one year. Undoubtedly, even though we are a small community, we have something on the ball. We do not believe that better training quarters could be selected by any team, than Bay St. Louis. The climate is here, weather conditions are perfect and training facilities are as good, or better, than could be had in any section of the South.

The people of Bay St. Louis are a wholesome type of people who love friendliness and who appreciate doing things for others. Having spent only a couple of days in our community, you can see the boys fraternizing with the home folks, and everyone is trying to make things as comfortable for these boys who are away from home probably for their first Christmas, and all hands are joined together attempting to make their stay with us as pleasant as possible.

On last Sunday evening Brother Peter, President of St. Stanislaus, together with members of the St. Stanislaus Sidelines Club, spent a couple of pleasant hours with the coaches and visiting sports writers, getting acquainted and exchanging pleasantries.

We can readily see why Tulsa has a winning team. Men of the type of Coach Frnka, Milligan and Brothers, afford a type of leadership that is necessary for the training of boys. These men are not the hardboiled type of coaches who are continually drilling and using the harder method to teach their boys the fine points of the football game, but are the type who lead their men, and the boys work their heads off to do what is necessary.

It may be that Tennessee will defeat Tulsa, but if they do, our impression is that they will realize that they have been in a fight. Tulsa has become the home team to us, and the people of Bay St. Louis are back of them one hundred percent. May their training prove successful, and may they be victorious in their game on New Year's Day, and may they leave Bay St. Louis with pleasant memories, feeling that they are always welcome to return, as a group, or as individuals.

May we wish to the coaches and to the boys, a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year, beginning on New Year's day with a victory over Tennessee.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TREE

Held at St. Stanislaus—Approximately 600 Children Receive Gifts

The Annual Christmas Tree conducted by Brother Peter and under the auspices of Saint Stanislaus was held at 2 P. M. Wednesday, December 23rd, in the St. Stanislaus Gymnasium. Approximately six hundred children ranging all the way from babes in their mothers' arms to grown boys and girls gathered to welcome Old Saint Nick who has never failed them.

At two-thirty the doors of the gym were opened and the children filed in and took their seats in the bleachers anxiously awaiting the arrival of Santa Claus. After a few minutes of anxious wait, the children heard in the distance the notes of "Jingle Bells" and then in came Santa. Jovial as usual and in exceptionally high spirits Santa greeted all the children and welcomed them to his favorite Christmas Tree.

While his assistants were busy distributing the enormous load of toys and fruit and candy that he had brought, he made his way from child to child answering their letters in person. As is his custom, Santa had for his assistants the Mesdames Carriere, Moreau and Monti. These ladies assisted by members of Saint Stanislaus Faculty and several of the students who had remained over for the holidays saw to it that every child was given some toys, a horn, a balloon and some fruit and candy.

The Saint Stanislaus Christmas Tree is an annual affair and for the past dozen years has been a source of joy to several hundred children less fortunate than others, who otherwise would hardly know the meaning of the spirit that is characteristic of Christmas. The credit of furnishing the money necessary to conduct a project of such magnitude must go to the student body of St. Stanislaus, who unflinching year after year, have contributed of their own funds or by their activity have helped in some way or another to raise the necessary funds.

The list of those contributing towards the success of the Christmas Tree Fund is as follows:
The students participating in the Annual Flea and Fly Game. This is the game of the year for all the small boys of Saint Stanislaus. Under the direction of Brother Leonard, these boys numbering almost a hundred, prepare themselves diligently for their annual game. They realize that they are trying to help some children, much poorer than themselves, to enjoy their Christmas. Not satisfied with simply playing the game they exert every effort to see to it that the game is a financial success. They sell tickets, prevail upon their fathers and mothers and friends to attend and in general put forth every effort to raise funds so that the Christmas Tree will be a success. Though they are already home enjoying their own holidays they take pleasure in knowing that they have contributed something to making Christmas a happy occasion than it would otherwise be for some poor child. This Flea-Fly Game is the greatest single contributor of funds to the Saint Stanislaus Christmas Tree.

This year the Coast Labor Union, through the kind efforts of Miss May Edwards, well-known local service worker, contributed a considerable sum of money to the Saint Stanislaus Christmas Tree.

To the members of the Coast Labor Union and to Miss Edwards go the sincere thanks of the many children who benefited by their generosity and also the thanks of the Authorities of Saint Stanislaus.

Another factor contributing greatly to the success of the undertaking was a raffle of two fifty-yard line Sugar Bowl tickets. This raffle was conducted by the members of the Saint Stanislaus Senior Class and taking into consideration the short length of time that it was conducted was a great success.

The individual contributors to the Christmas Tree Funds were: Mrs. Charles Moreau; Mr. A. G. Shear; Mr. J. T. Prowell; Miss Mary A. Hale.

In addition to the Christmas Tree a number of baskets were prepared and delivered. In these baskets were all the things necessary to make an extra good Christmas Day dinner for an entire family. The funds necessary to purchase all the things that went into these baskets were also raised by the above mentioned organizations and people. All these baskets were delivered to deserving people whose names had been submitted by the local Red Cross organization under the direction of Mrs. Louis Maumus, and by Miss May Edwards. The City of Bay St. Louis gladly lent the services of one of their trucks and several of their employees to deliver these baskets. Mrs. Maumus personally delivered the baskets to the people whose names had been submitted by the Red Cross. In addition to these baskets of foodstuffs, many boxes of toys were sent to families who because of such difficulties and distance and lack of conveyance were unable to attend the Christmas tree.

TULSA UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL COACHES

Left to right, Coach W. S. (Mike) Milligan, Coach Henry Frnka, Coach J. O. (Buddy) Brothers. These three men are responsible for the coaching of the Tulsa University football team, in training quarters at Bay St. Louis for the Sugar Bowl Game. It is the splendid job of coaching, together with the response given by the boys that made possible the selection of Tulsa for the Sugar Bowl Game.

Bay St. Louis is indebted to Coach Frnka for having selected our little city as training quarters for his championship team.

"A Child Is Born—Come Let Us Adore Him"

By Rev. Father John Niemeyer

Christmas should be the happiest day of the year, because it is the anniversary on which we commemorate with most ancient rites, the most momentous event that has taken place in the history of mankind. It was on this day God said "Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee." This day a child was born. This day the Prince of Peace was born.

Children are born every day—but Christmas is the solemn day when God became a child. It was that first Christmas Nite when Angels told the shepherds, "Behold I bring you good news of great joy." The best news that the world has ever heard. A child is born—The Savior—the one for whom you have waited these thousands of years. Your God has come to earth. It was then that the shepherds said, one to another—"Come Let Us Adore Him."

The customs of many countries throughout the centuries have varied in celebrating this great event. Tonight again it is Christmas eve. Everywhere people are trying to make merry, as much as they can in this time of war—to forget for a few hours the sorrows of the present. Everyone is eager to believe that even now one might be happy again.

The angels that herald the Nativity sweep over the earth in a hurried flight. They pass in an attempt to leave a spring of peace and gentleness in each heart.

But where is that peace tonight? There is no Christmas peace this year for so many men. What can be the use to celebrate Christmas? Christmas is a family feast—a feast of peace, and the joy is great only when each feels his own heart warmed by the presence of his loved ones.

This year there is separation—not merely absence, for no one knows the fate of many of their dearest, whether they be living or dead.

Hidden in a shadow a mother sits and thinks. She sees a Christmas of old. Happy days before the war. Where is her son tonight? Why can't this son be with his mother? Because too many have turned their hearts from the Prince of Peace. They have no room in their hearts for the child who is born tonight—as Bethlehem of old.

Nevertheless on this Christmas day he will come again, to those hearts who will welcome Him. To the hearts who are saddened by a life that has been taken away. He will come again to each, when their hearts cry out, "Lord I am not worthy." To heal those broken hearts, if they attend the banquet feast, He Himself serves at the communion rail. He will come to each and everyone as he has never come before in his own sweet way. He the child who is born, who came to bring peace to the hearts of men, will bring Peace again. Now come let us follow the shepherds to adore Him—at Christ's Mass on Christmas—Merry Christmas.

MID-NIGHT MASS AT OUR LADY OF THE GULF CHURCH

In many places throughout the world there will be no midnight mass tonight. Bells no longer peal—choruses no longer re-echo over the mountains and lands. But in Our Lady of the Gulf Church we will commemorate the splendor of most ancient rites the most momentous event that has taken place in the history of mankind. At twelve o'clock on Christmas eve nite there will again be renewed the greatest act of worship that God has ever accepted. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be solemnly celebrated by Very Rev. A. J. Gmelch, assisted by Rev. Wm. Clark as Deacon and Rev. J. Niemeyer as Sub-deacon, with altar boys from the parish as minor ministers. Father Gmelch will deliver his usual Christmas message to his flock at this Mass.

The Brothers of the Sacred Heart of St. Stanislaus College, under the direction of Brother Romuald are scheduled to sing for the Mass.

All schools in Bay St. Louis are enjoying their Christmas holidays at present.

Central High School and Taylor and Edwardsville Schools closed on last Friday, each room having its own Christmas tree and party with students exchanging gifts.

St. Stanislaus College dismissed classes on Thursday December 19th, in order that its boarding students would be enabled to return to their homes to spend the holiday season with their parents and loved ones.

St. Joseph Academy dismissed classes on Tuesday, December 21st, with Christmas trees and class parties held in the different class rooms, and candy given the children by the sisters.

ORTTE CHRISTMAS TREE

Makes Several Hundred Children Happy—Those Who Contribute Thanked

All county lanes led to Ortte's Theatre on Wednesday when several hundred boys and girls from all over the county, despite the difficulties of travel during wartime, managed to get in to Bay St. Louis to the Christmas Party and free distribution of toys which the Ortte Theatre conducted and took advantage of the opportunity of receiving gifts of toys of a miscellaneous sort, fruit and candy.

Long before noon, every available school bus and conveyance of every description brought children into the Bay and crowded about the Ortte Theatre, and when the show opened, filled every seat and spread in every corner of the large building.

A picture was shown the children and talks made to them and Jack Arnold, possessor of a splendid voice, led them in singing Christmas carols, after which the distribution of toys began and Santa Claus reigned supreme.

Mrs. Ortte and the personnel of the theatre were ably assisted in the toy distribution and handling of the children by members of the girl scout troop. Everyone who assisted this worthy cause and contributed in any way towards the success of the toy distribution was thanked by Mr. and Mrs. Ortte, especially the merchants and individuals who contributed towards the purchase of toys.

HANCOCK NURSERY SCHOOL

On January 4th, 1943, the Hancock County Nursery School will be opened.

This school will be under the direction of Professor S. J. Ingram, City Superintendent of Schools of Bay St. Louis.

The purpose of the school is to care for children from the ages of two to five years whose mothers are working. It will not be necessary for the mothers of these children to be engaged in defense work. Any parent who is interested in entering their child, or children in this nursery school should call at the Webb School on Wednesday, December 29th where the nursery school will be held for the purpose of enrolling children.

The school will be in direct charge of Mrs. J. W. May, Mrs. C. M. Shipp, Mrs. W. W. James, Mrs. Andy Becker, and Miss Dorothy Murphy.

COMMENTS OF VISITING SPORTS EDITORS

We are very happy this week to be able to give to our readers an expression from two of the Sports Editors visiting in Bay St. Louis with the Tulsa University Football Team—Mr. B. A. Bridgewater, Sports Editor of the Tulsa World and Mr. Jack Charvat, Sports Editor of the Tulsa Tribune.

From B. A. Bridgewater, Tulsa World Sports Editor: Tulsa University's Sugar Bowl football team could not have made a more fortunate choice of a training camp for its important New Year's day game with Tennessee. The Oklahomaans had not been at "the Bay" a day before Coach Henry Frnka, the careful, painstaking leader of the Golden Hurricane had expressed himself as thoroughly pleased with the surroundings, the facilities of St. Stanislaus, the genuine hospitality of the citizens and the wholehearted co-operation and sincere friendliness of Brother Peter and his associates.

The players are pleased, too. They like their quarters at the hotel, and they enjoy roving around the quiet little city in their spare time. They marvel at the green trees and flowers, so different from the wintry scene they left in Tulsa although Oklahoma is by no means a northern state. But the boys like the interlude in the balmy southland, and even though it's the first time most of them have been away from home at Christmas time they're happy and contented. Everybody is so nice to them they don't have a chance to feel very lonesome.

The boys are looking forward eagerly to their Christmas tree and party at the Reed Hotel Friday night. It will break the routine of classes and football on and off the practice field.

Tulsa's players feel they won't be too much in the role of "visiting team" at New Orleans New Year's Day, because they'll be the home team for Bay St. Louis. They feel like they'll have some loyal rooters up there cheering for them.

This correspondent has been assigned to many baseball spring training camps in Oklahoma, Florida and Texas—but never in one where the surroundings were more pleasant, the atmosphere more friendly or the accommodations better than in Bay St. Louis.

By Jack Charvat, Sports Editor, The Tulsa Tribune:

The University of Tulsa's Golden Hurricane, victor in 11 consecutive major ball games, hopes to make it 12 in a row on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl classic against Tennessee.

And the splendid training facilities accorded the club by Bay St. Louis and St. Stanislaus College are expected to contribute to this objective.

Since Coach Henry Frnka's club defeated Texas Tech on last New Year's Day in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas, the Hurricane has swept through to 10 more victories over major opposition.

As the club goes through its training routine in this city Coach Frnka is more than pleased with its condition and he anticipates taking a "razor-sharp" outfit into the Sugar Bowl a week from Friday.

"We are doing a fine job of getting ready down here with the good weather, good food and fine facilities offered us," Henry said Wednesday, "And I feel we will have no alibi if defeated by the Vols."

The players are highly pleased with their surroundings and only want to win the ball game to say "Thank You" to Bay St. Louis and Sugar Bowl friends.

To All Our Friends
We Wish
A Merry Christmas

GOSPEL FOR CHRISTMAS DAY ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE, CHAPTER 2: VERSES 1 TO 14

AT THAT TIME, there went forth a decree from Caesar Augustus that a census of the world should be taken. This first census took place while Cyrenus was governor of Syria. And all were going, each to his own town, to register. And Joseph also went from Galilee out of the town of Nazareth into Judea to the town of David, which is called Bethlehem—because he was of the house of David—to register, together with Mary his espoused wife, who was with child. And it came to pass while they were there, that the days for her to be delivered were fulfilled. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds in the same district living in the fields and keeping watch over their flocks by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them and the glory of God shone round about them, and they feared exceedingly. And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which shall be to all the people; for there has been born to you today in the town of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign to you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to men of good will."

CHRISTMAS

NEVER a Christmas Morning,
Never the old year ends,
But somebody thinks of somebody,
Old days, old times, old friends.

This year in a war torn world our thoughts run to our friends whose sons, brothers, husbands are absent from home on Christmas Day, engaged in one of the bitterest conflicts this world has ever known.

A war brought about by a tyrant and his associates, seeking power and the riches of the world—whose sole thought is to emulate the conquerors of old—who is attempting to destroy the worship and the belief in God.

This Christmas as we celebrate the Birth of Christ, the Prince of Peace, the King of Kings, would it not be appropriate for us to offer our prayers to Him, asking for a victory for our forces, and a quick return to their loved ones of these boys who have given up all who are near and dear to them and have gone forth to fight the battles in order that we might be able to live in Peace and Happiness.

Christmas is a day of great joy, but this year there is much sorrow throughout our country. Many families have never been divided at this season of the year, and today we find some members of the family scattered to the four corners of the earth. Others are torn with grief at the report of the death of one near and dear to them. Others realize that this may be the last Christmas that the entire family will spend together—children, boys of teen age going from the paternal roofs to become hardened soldiers, to be taught to kill. With these thoughts in the minds of parents there can be little rejoicing.

Our sole thought should be that God in his wisdom will answer our prayers, that he will give to us a victory that will forever destroy elements of the type that control our enemy countries, and that we will have a just peace that will be everlasting.

May our prayers be answered, and may we forget many of our sorrows and cast aside our materialisms and again look to God for succor and help, and may we again join the heavenly host, praising God, saying—"Glory to God in the Highest, and peace on earth to men of good will."

LESSONS OF HISTORY

SPEAKING of the lessons of history, Secretary of State Hull has said:

"The first is that man's innate striving for freedom cannot be extinguished.
"The second is that liberty is truly won only when it is guarded by the same watchfulness, the same courage, the same willingness to fight for it which first secured it."

These are true sentiments. We direct particular attention to the second. Forgetting it during the past twenty years may have helped bring us into a second world-wide war.

It goes without saying that in the future we should tie our international future with those nations who believe in liberty and practice it. Whenever one of those freedom-loving nations is attacked by any future aggressor, we should be ready to engage in battle to protect, not the nation attacked in itself but the cause of liberty assailed.

The lesson of the past twenty years is that the loss of freedom by any one nation is a stepping stone towards the enslavement of other liberty-loving countries. To fight tyranny at its outset is cheaper in lives and treasure than after it has been strengthened by the destruction and robbery of its victims.

Three of a kind—golfers, fishermen and proud parents.

Even the smartest individual has much to learn and the smarter they get the better they realize it.

Your best friend is the person who tells you the truth, not the one who tells you what you want to hear.

It is to be hoped that the next generation will not be so busy making money that parents will forget to associate with their growing children.

Poinsettias Sent To Service Men In Hospitals at Camp Shelby and Gulfport

Through the generosity of Mesdames Minna W. Briggs and Kate Connors, and also of St. Joseph Academy, a splendid supply of poinsettia blossoms were cut and treated for preservation from wilting and sent to service men in the hospital at Camp Shelby, and also men in the Field Hospital at Gulfport who will have this added bit of brightness to cheer them in the hospital wards during the Christmas season.

An appeal had been made for poinsettia blossoms and on Monday Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Connors and Sister Albertine of St. Joseph Academy cut quantities of their growing flowers and gave them to Mrs. Frank Kiefer who had them sent on to the above named hospitals.

of the Victory Tax withheld must be filed during the month following the close of the calendar quarter.

"The withholding agent is the person having control of the payment of the wages, even though that person may not actually make payment of the wages. In the case of agencies of Federal, state, and local governments, the person being responsible for the preparation and certification of the pay-roll generally is the withholding agent. All other employers—individuals and corporations—are the withholding agents. The withholding is also required to be made by all corporations and organizations that are exempt from income tax. This includes churches and other organizations that pay salaries to employees.

"Certain instructions and forms will be mailed at an early date to those employers whose names are available to the Collector of Internal Revenue. Any employer, or other withholding agent who does not receive the Victory tax forms and instructions before January 1, 1943, should contact the Collector of Internal Revenue at Jackson, Mississippi.

"Beginning January 1, 1943, every employer is required to withhold from the wages of every employee (except for agricultural labor, domestic service and casual labor and for certain other classes of service) a tax of 5 per cent of the amount of each payment in excess of the withholding deduction allowable. The withholding is required on all wages paid after December 31, 1942, even though paid for services rendered during 1942.

Forms To Be Used In Collection Victory Tax To Be Mailed

Jackson, Miss., Dec. 21—Full information and forms to be used in connection with the Victory tax which becomes effective January 1, 1943, will be mailed within the next few days to all persons responsible for withholding Victory Tax deductions. It was announced today by Eugene Fly, Collector of Internal Revenue.

"The new Victory tax will apply to all business, charitable, religious, and factional institutions, as well as to all Federal agencies, states, counties, cities, and all political subdivisions which have payrolls," Mr. Fly stated.

"Beginning January 1, 1943, every employer is required to withhold from the wages of every employee (except for agricultural labor, domestic service and casual labor and for certain other classes of service) a tax of 5 per cent of the amount of each payment in excess of the withholding deduction allowable. The withholding is required on all wages paid after December 31, 1942, even though paid for services rendered during 1942.

"The withholding deduction is $24.00 for the year, or corresponding amounts depending upon the pay-roll period by which the employee is paid. In other words, the pay-roll deduction is $12.00 for a weekly pay-roll period; $24.00 for a bi-weekly pay-roll period; $26.00 for a semi-monthly and $52.00 for a monthly pay-roll period.

Taylor School

A large and appreciative audience greeted the pupils of R. W. Taylor School when the program began with a medley of patriotic songs played by the Rhythm Band. A feature of this number was a solo by Clayton Adam—the youngest pupil in the school. Of course, he was a real star.

Songs and short plays featuring the Christmas spirit, and several motion songs made up the very enjoyable program.

A Christmas tree on which were at least four packages for each pupil was made possible by our "Fair God Father" Mr. George Pitcher and it is needless to say we were very much disappointed when we were told he could not be present to share the Christmas joy that he had so generously provided. We hope he all he has done for our little school. To all who in any way contributed to make the occasion a success we say "Thank You."

Periodically there comes to a people as to the individual a testing time. And how men and women meet this "acid test" determines their true place in history.

Men prophesy that the world of tomorrow takes form today in the test tubes of science. Chermurgy even in the midst of war seeks new patterns for a peace with plenty. But the human element cannot be reduced to chemical formula. If we would really forecast the future, we need but look into the heart of humanity.

So as America measures up to the challenge of these crucial times and sets the good example, she foretells the future. Through the sacrifice and heroism of her sons and daughters she gives new hope to mankind—restored faith to enslaved millions.

It is good to live in times when men willingly die for their ideals. Freedom is something worth striving for and saving for—worth banking on and investing in.

With The Girl Scouts

During the past month the Girl Scouts of Troop 2 have held their weekly meetings at their scout house on Second street. A few weeks ago they voted on patrol leaders and names for the three patrols. Virgil Pick was elected leader of the Sea Gulls, of which the following girls are members: Violet Capdepont, Rita Mae Scaffidi, Patsy Gex, Thelma Jamias, Jackie Quintini, Betty Colton, Beverly Favre, Dora Anne Oliver, Mary Lou Scaffidi, Valerie Thomas, Ginette Donneaud, Norma Jean Noto. The leader of the Pelicans is Mary Jane Donlin and the following Girl Scouts belong to this group: Liboria Bourgeois, Lucille Benvenuti, Lillie Mae Donlin, Evelyn Murtigh, Norma Garcia, Carolyn Hooten, Mary Jane Green leads the Crickets with the following girls: Eric Aydelott, Rita Boh, Margaret Boh, Joan Bontemps, Alice Braud, Joan Hobbs, Barbara Switzer, Carol Carver, Camella Fernandez, Jean Fernandez, Sylvia Ladner, Arie Louise Wyatt, Susan Smith.

On last Thursday the Girl Scouts celebrated three birthdays of their troop. Ginette Donneaud had ten candles on her cake, Alice Braud also had ten candles and Jane Aydelott had eleven.

The Boarders refectory was the scene of this gala party. It was very beautifully decorated in pink and green and the tables were arranged in E formation. About forty five little girls enjoyed this party. Presents were given to the three little scouts whose birthday was being celebrated and ice cream and cake was served.

On Tuesday night, December 22, the members of Troop 2 celebrated again with a Christmas party. True to the traditional spirit of the Girl Scouts the world over, the girls assembled at their scout house—sang carols and proceeded from the house to the hospital to cheer up and to spread the true Christmas spirit by singing carols to the patients in the hospital. They carried a small crib and a Christmas tree from their house to Marie Therese Staehle's room. They felt very happy at being able to offer a good deed for one of their school mates by bringing her the small replica of the Tree of Gifts the Healer of the Sick. Upon their return to the scout house they enjoyed a nice supper in a beautifully decorated dining room. The center piece was a small manger containing a large statue of the Baby Jesus. Streamers of green and red draped the room and Christmas candles added to the holiday atmosphere. Carols intermingled with their gay laughter and conversation. Gifts were exchanged and at ten thirty, thirty happy little scouts wended their way homeward.

Thanks were extended to their leaders, Sister Mary Grace and Blandine and to the four committee ladies, Miss Louise Armstrong, Mrs. A. G. Favre, Mrs. Lucien M. Gex, Mrs. Louis Fernandez for the part they contributed towards making this party a big success.

Truck Partially Burned

A truck, owned by Mike Heck of New Orleans, and loaded with fruit and vegetables consigned to Ashton's Grocery, Gulfport, was partially burned last Saturday at the intersection of Dunbar avenue and Highway 90. Mr. Saucier of the city police said the driver of the truck said that he swerved the truck to avoid hitting a cow and the truck left the highway, ran about 100 feet and turned over in a ditch. The truck caught fire and approximately half the load was a total loss.

The accident occurred about 3:30 P. M.

'TALES OF MANHATTAN' STAR-STUDDER!

Hailed as 'Greatest In a Decade'—Film To Be At A. & G. Theater, Sunday-Monday

Three years ago those two indefatigable gentlemen, Boris Morros and S. P. Eagle, conceived an idea for a screenplay that would cut the very heart out of New York and lay it before America's moviegoers to behold in all of its reckless adventure, hilarious humor and palpitating romance—indeed, in all of the fabulous facts of its dramatic existence.

The story, to be sure, was a natural, but it would require a cast of stars unprecedented in the history of motion pictures and a staff of writers specializing in every human emotion from humor to pathos. What studio, then, would dare to gamble on such a vast and expensive undertaking? Hence scoffers, scoffed and hecklers snickered. But Morros and Eagle, being indefatigable, were not dismayed.

They preserved and 20th Century-Fox dared to gamble. The result, "Tales of Manhattan" it's called, debuts locally at the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday, just as its producers originally conceived it. The film has been hailed by no less an authority than Walter Winchell as "one of the greatest films I've ever seen!" And it has been acclaimed with equal enthusiasm wherever it has played. "And no wonder! Imagine all of these stars in one picture: Charles Boyer, Rita Hayworth, Ginger Rogers, Henry Fonda, Charles Laughton, Edward G. Robinson, Ethel Waters and "Rochester." But don't go yet brother!

There's Thomas Mitchell, too, and Eugene Pallette, Cesar Romero, Gail Patrick, the celebrated Hall Johnson Choir, Roland Young, Elsa Lancaster, George Sanders, James Gleason and many many more. Who, you ask, could possibly have created a story big enough for so great a galaxy of stars?

To match the brilliance of these stars the finest writers in Hollywood fashioned the story.

It takes you from a tentament to a penthouse . . . from Park Avenue to Hell's Kitchen. A story blending drama, comedy, music, romance and stirring action in a big-time show, it is so conceived that every sequence of the entire film rings true. As for the writers Ben Hecht had his magic hand in it and so too, did Ferenc Molnar, Donald Ogden Stewart, Samuel Hoffenstein, Alan Campbell, Ladislav Fodor L. Vachal, L. Gorog, Lamar Trotti and Henry Blaufort.

How many directors were there? Just one—Julien Duvivier—but, they say, he did the job with the adroitness of ten.

All have agreed with Winchell's stirring tribute "It's as exciting as New York's skyline!"

ORTIE THEATER SUNDAY-MONDAY "SWEETHEART OF THE FLEET"

Jinx Falkenburg and Joan Woodbury, those sizzling "Two Latins From Manhattan," are back again in another Columbia musical that promises to be 'way gayer and merrier than their earlier hit!

"Sweetheart of the Fleet" should prove to be a sweetheart of a comedy with Joan Davis, also of "Two Latins From Manhattan," and Brenda and Cobina, famous radio comedies joining those hot-swingin' lovelies as they sing the blues to the boys in blue!

The story, which was directed by Charles Barton, is concerned with a press agent's efforts at dreaming up a gigantic stunt to help sell Navy Recruiting to the public at a giant Madison Square Garden rally. The press agent, Joan Davis, gets the inspired idea to "unmask" the Blind Date radio singers at the rally as the sweethearts of the fleet. Because nobody is supposed to know the identity of the girls, it is felt that this announced plan will bring thousands to the Garden on the night of the rally.

The plan hilariously backfires, though, when Joan learns that the Blind Dates are really Brenda and Cobina, whose faces as everyone knows, will stop any clock that was ever made. However, in true press agent fashion, Joan comes through with another plan that's even better.

She arranges for the Misses Falkenburg and Woodbury, two beautiful models, to impersonate the Blind Date girls. Several hitches develop before the affair actually is run off, but things are finally ironed out in a hectic climax with Brenda and Cobina eloping with two sailors! Jinx and Joan finding romance with two Navy officers, and Joan Davis finally convincing her boss that she, too has more than her share of charm—as well as brains! The screen play which was written by Albert Duffy and Maurice Tombragel, was produced for Columbia by Jack Pier. Other members of the cast besides those mentioned above, include William Wright, Robert Stevens, Tim Ryan, George McKay and Walter Sande among others.

spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Waldorff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Daige have rented a house on Beach Boulevard and plan to remain for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bernard are the proud grandparents of a grandson. They have recently bought a home in Bay St. Louis and will soon reside there.

Herman Mazarakis, R. J. Ladner and H. J. Ladner have been called for service to Camp Shelby. They were among the 39 who passed the physical examination.

Morris Bourgeois is now in service having joined Clifford and Wesley, his brothers. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bourgeois. Another son Leroy hopes to enter service in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Ladner of New Orleans were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mazarakis.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bourgeois had their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Ladner over from New Orleans.

Coming from Monroe, La., and spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hava, Adrian Hava left Waveland on December 24th for basic training in the Navy Air Corps, a pre-flight school in Athens, Ga. A three months training. He will be in active duty.

Leads All States In Scrap

The Mississippi WPA, according to a statement by J. M. Bryant, state director, is leading all the states in the Union in the collection of scrap metal. It seems that the WPA project for collecting scrap was nationwide and from April 21 to November 24th there was collected in all the states 284,244 tons of scrap and of this total Mississippi turned in 38,601 tons, for which the WPA paid more than $200,000 to the people of Mississippi who collected it.

Sales Are Up.

Figures furnished the Chamber of Commerce by the State Tax Commission show that in the month of September, 1942, taxable sales in Hinds County reached a total of $11,304,305.80. Of this amount $4,933,154.00 was retail trade. The 1942 sales exceeded the 1941 sales for the same month in the same county by more than three-quarters of a million dollars.

Traffic Deaths

Traffic Deaths in Mississippi in the first ten months of 1942 deceased 18 per cent as compared with the record of 1941. The decrease in the nation shows a reduction of approximately 27 per cent, as compared with 1941 for the period of 11 months. In the month of October Mississippi had 42 traffic deaths in 1942, the same number as in October, 1941.

McGowan Appointed

M. M. McGowan, former Hinds County legislator, has been appointed by Gov. Johnson to succeed Hugh G. Gillespie as district attorney of the 7th circuit court district, election to be called by the Governor. It is understood that Mr. McGowan will be a candidate for the unexpired term.

In the Army Now

Another good newspaperman has "gone to war." He is Erle Johnston Jr., editor of the Scott County Times at Forest, who has been appointed Mississippi representative of the Office of War Information. He will have headquarters in Jackson and will handle the news of the various war agencies in the Capital City. While he is on his war assignment, Mrs. Johnston will handle the newspaper work at Forest, with Erle dropping in occasionally to see how things are running. Before going to Forest, Erle worked as state house reporter for the Clarion Ledger. He is a native of Grenada.

Congress Quits

The 77th Congress adjourned on Wednesday of last week after the longest continuous session in history. The new 78th Congress, will convene on January 6th, 1943.

Rent Control

Powell Hall, Rent Control Director for Hinds, Madison and Rankin counties, has arranged his staff and is now at work interviewing landlords and getting information on rental property.

$ Billion Loan

The United States Treasury is putting over a nine billion dollar loan and speakers are wanted in every county of the state to present the matter to the people. Tom Q. Ellis, clerk of the Supreme Court, has been named state director of the Speakers' bureau, and R. E. Eteen will be mobilization director. The public men of the state are taking readily to the task of presenting the proposition to the people and the loan is really going strong.

Endorsed Plan

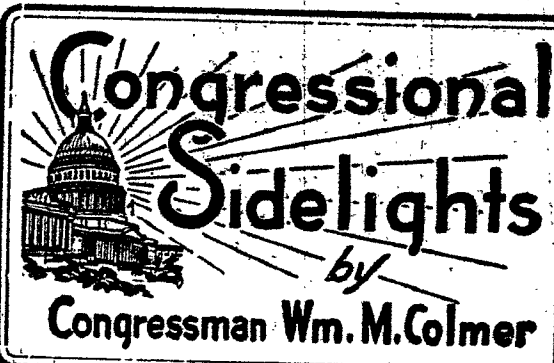

The cotton farmers voted on the 12th on the matter of extending the cotton quota plan for another year, just as it has been for the past year, and the vote was an overwhelming endorsement of the plan.

Commissions have been mailed by the Secretary of State, Walker Wood, to the newly elected municipal officers, who are to take office on January 5th. The number, including mayors, marshals, clerks and aldermen, aggregate about three thousand.

A dormitory on the Lambert prison farm near Parchman was destroyed by fire one night last week. The damage was estimated at $12,000. None of the prisoners were injured.

Gov. Johnson has commuted the death sentence of Lee Kinney in Pike County to life imprisonment. Kinney was convicted on a charge of murder and the date of execution set for December 18th, then the Governor acted to save his life.

Raking Around. During the present hunting season in the State of Maine already 22,301 deer have been killed, supplying, it is estimated, more than two and a half million pounds of meat, worth more than a million dollars. F. A. Parker, editor of the Prentiss Headlight, has been elected mayor of Prentiss. Christmas greeting and prosperity, unobscured by the cruelties and anxieties of war.

On December 16th, 1942, the 77th Congress, which began during the last days of peace, and which established a record for having been in session longer than any other Congress in the history of the American Republic, adjourned sine die. The 78th Congress, which doubtless also will make history, will convene on January 6, 1943, giving the Members an opportunity to have a brief visit with their families after having been in Washington almost continuously for the past two years.

Some of the major accomplishments of the Seventy-Seventh Congress are as follows:

(1) It declared war on Japan, Germany, Italy, Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria.

(2) It voted appropriations totaling $205,000,000,000—more than four times the amount of money appropriated for World War I. It earmarked over $192,000,000,000 of this staggering total for war purposes.

(3) It gave the President through the two War Powers Acts and the Price and Wage Control legislation great power over domestic economy.

(4) It adopted an almost revolutionary policy for the United States of taking women into noncombatant units of the armed forces by the creation of the WAAC's, the WAVES, and the SPARS.

(5) It enlarged and expanded the conscription law, first requiring registration for the draft of all men between the ages of 20 and 65 and later lowering the draft and combat age to include 18 and 19-year old boys.

The subdued atmosphere marking the adjournment of the 77th Congress was evidence enough of the war-consciousness of the Members, most of whom have sons in the armed forces. It was a decided contrast to the usual gala atmosphere which has always prevailed in days of peace when each Congress adjourned.

In the closing hours of the session, President Roosevelt sent messages to Vice-President Wallace and Speaker Rayburn, thanking the Membership of the Senate and the House for their accomplishments and cooperation in the past two years.

Manpower

The Selective Service System has been placed under the War Manpower Commission in an effort to provide the most efficient mobilization of manpower for the military and naval services and for war industries. With this change, there has also come a change in the policies covering the calling of men into the armed forces. The induction of men 38 years of age or over has been halted, except in instances where older men with special abilities are needed, and voluntary enlistments for the Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard have been placed on a time-limit basis, with February 1st being the deadline.

Provision also has been made for releasing from the Army certain men 38 years of age or older who are not able to perform military duties satisfactorily but who are qualified to assist in the war effort in civilian capacities. In order to be considered for such a release the soldier must (1) request in writing to his immediate commanding officer that he be discharged, (2) be handicapped by his age (38 or over) to the extent that his usefulness in the Army is secondary to that of industry, and (3) present satisfactory evidence that he will be employed in an essential war industry, which includes agriculture.

Each application for discharge will be considered on its individual merits.

MAYBE TOMORROW

Maybe tomorrow the bells will ring,
The whistles blow and the children sing
That peace has come back to earth again
And sanity has returned to men.

Maybe tomorrow the sun will rise
On a peaceful earth, beneath peaceful skies—
Blue skies—whose billowing clouds contain—
Not roaring, screaming death—but rain.

Maybe tomorrow the rain will fall
On brown, scorched lands, and disperse the pall
Of strife and hate that lingers there
On once-green fields that no longer bear.

Maybe tomorrow when guns are stilled
And destruction's done—we'll start to build
The homes we've saved and waited for
And start to really live once more.

While bending every effort toward the immediate task of winning the war we can sincerely hope at this Christmas Time that "Maybe tomorrow the bells will ring, the whistles blow and the children sing."

We dedicate this message of inspiration to the more than 60 employees of this Company who are with high purpose serving in the armed forces and to all of the men and women of this section who are their comrades in arms.
